What are the four conventional literary genres have you found in the puzzle? Answer: The four conventional literary genres I have found in the puzzle is poetry, drama, fiction, and non-fiction. 2. What are their unique features? Answer: POETRY- is an imaginative awareness of experience expressed through meaning, sound and rhythmic language choices to evoke an emotional response. It has been known to employ meter and rhyme. The very nature of poetry as an authentic and individual mode of expression makes it nearly impossible to define. DRAMA- is a composition in prose or verse presenting in dialogue or pantomime a story involving conflict more contrast of character, especially on intended to be acted on a stage: a play. It may be any situation or series of events having vivid, emotional, conflicting or striking interest. FICTION- is literature created from the imagination, not presented as fact, though it may be based on a true story or situation. Types of literature in the fiction include the novel, short story and novella. NON-FICTION- is based on facts and the author's opinion about a subject. The purpose of nonfiction writing is to inform and sometimes to persuade. It's examples are biographies, articles from textbooks and magazines and newspapers. 4 Activity 1 Direction: Analyze the content of the text below and identify its literary genre. Answer: The literary genre of the text above is flash fiction. Source: Assessment 1 Write a 5-10 sentence paragraph describing the characteristics of Tristan Café that qualifies it as a 21st-century literary piece. Use the paragraph writing rubric as your guide. Tristan Cafe had fallen in love with her best friend which, she is now on a long-distance. Tristan Cafe could not forget her best friend that he had fallen in love with, because of the memories they have spent so much together and did not have the time to confess his love for her. 5 But at some point, he finally realizes that it's time to move on and realizing that he, himself deserves to be happy. It qualifies as a 21st-century literary price because nowadays some people are scared or doesn't have the guts to tell the person their feelings or emotions about love, and realizing that it's too late for them to confess or telling them how much they love that kind of specific person. I really put myself in the shoes of Tristan Café because recently I didn't have the guts to tell my feelings and realizing that he find someone else already but I'm happy for the both of them.
